1.0 Introduction

Rowden House Hall School aims for all students to enjoy learning, make progress and achieve. To become confident individuals living safe, healthy and fulfilling lives who make a positive contribution to society. The school's aim is for students to:

- Engage in Learning
- Develop communication skills
- Self-manage behaviours
- Form positive relationships
- Be healthy
- Access lifelong learning.

2.0 The Equality Act 2010 - Disability

This plan has been prepared in response to the school's duties under Section 88 of The Equality Act 2010. The school recognises the following duties:

- Not to discriminate against disabled pupils in their admissions and exclusions and provision of education and associated services;
- Not to treat disabled pupils less favourably;
- To publish an Accessibility Plan (known as the Planning Duty).

3.0 Definition of Disability

A disabled person is defined by the Disability Discrimination Act as:

- A person who has a physical or mental impairment that has a substantial and long-term adverse effect on his or her ability to carry out normal day to day activities.

4.0 The Planning Duty

The Act places a duty (the Planning Duty) on schools to prepare Access Utility Plans for:

- Increasing the extent to which pupils can participate in the school curriculum, e.g. leisure activities and school visits.
- Improving the physical environment of schools to increase the extent to which disabled pupils can take advantage of education and associated services.
- Improving the delivery of written information, e.g. handouts, timetables etc.

Independent schools must make their Accessibility Plans available to interested parties on request at reasonable times.

5.0 The Accessibility Plan

This plan aims to improve access to all aspects of education within Rowden House School and is organised in a way that helps to remove any existing barriers to pupil learning. It also aims to widen the opportunities available to students who may have had restricted access to the wider community in previous settings. This is our commitment to developing the outcomes within Rowden House School's aims and objectives.

- The SENAD Group will monitor the implementation of the plan and regularly review the access needs of the school.
- This plan was reviewed in June 2014; June 2017 and October 2018
- It will be made available on the school's website.
