

Academic Performance 2022-2023

All young people have achieved their targeted levels set at the beginning of the year, with the below qualifications achieved for AIM Qualifications in Personal and Social Development Skills:

Level of Qualification	Number of Young People Achieved
Entry 1: Extended certificate (27 credits)	4
Entry 2: Certificate (15 credits)	1
Entry 2: Extended certificate (27 credits)	4
Entry 3: Extended certificate (27 credits)	4
Entry 3: Diploma (37 credits)	1

Young people also completed AIM Qualifications, within a range of industry sectors (based on individual interests and future destinations), to achieve standalone vocational qualifications in:

Name of Qualification	Number of Young People Achieved
Working in Horticulture – Entry 3 Award	8
Working in the Catering Industries – Entry 3 Award	7
Working in the Catering Industries – Level 1 Award	1
Working in Digital Technology – Entry 3 Award	7
Working in Hair and Beauty Industries – Entry 3 Award	4
Working in Creative Design Industries – Entry 3 Award	5