

Academic Performance 2023-2024

All young people have achieved their targeted levels set at the beginning of the year, with the below qualifications achieved for AIM Qualifications in Personal and Social Development Skills:

Level of Qualification	Number of Young People Achieved
Entry 1: Certificate (15 credits)	1
Entry 1: Extended certificate (27 credits)	2
Entry 1: Diploma (37 credits)	2
Entry 2: Extended certificate (27 credits)	4
Entry 2: Diploma	1
Entry 3: Diploma (37 credits)	3

Young people also completed AIM Qualifications, within a range of industry sectors (based on individual interests and future destinations), to achieve standalone vocational qualifications in:

Name of Qualification	Number of Young People Achieved
Working in animal care industries - Level One Award	6
Working in catering and hospitality industries – Level One Award	5
Working in catering and hospitality industries – Entry 3 Award	2
Working in digital industries- Level 1 Award	12

Working in Hair and Beauty Industries – Entry 3 Award	4
Working in creative design industries- Entry 3 Award	8
Working in creative design industries- Level One Award	2